

Consent to information-sharing

This is an optional consent form.

You do not need to sign it in order to participate in the UBC Social Support Study.

By default, we will not share any identifying information about you with anyone outside of the research team, as outlined in the UBC Social Support Study consent form. Your answers to the surveys will always be confidential, no matter what.

If you would like to, you can allow us to share some information with other professionals in order to help connect you with supports and opportunities that you choose. We will share only the information indicated here in order to help them get in contact with you directly.

Please see the other documents in this onboarding package for information about the individual services and opportunities listed below.

Use this form to tell us when (if ever) you do want us to share your personal information. You can always change your mind or withdraw your consent later.
